God bless You, in the name of Jesus Christ,

As born again sons and daughters, of the living God and being joint heir with Jesus Christ, God has called us to live above this world systems and ways and to walk in the power of the spirit of God, that dwells in us and to live our new life in Christ, in victory. (1John 4:4)(Romans 8:37) (1 Corinthians 15:57) (2 Corinthians 2:14) (Romans 8:14) (1 John 2:15-17) (1 John 5:19-21) (2 Corinthians 4:3-6)

Now that we are born again of the spirit of God, we can arm ourselves with the truths and promises of God's word, and come into agreement with what God says and by our actions and what we say, we can overcome any and all situations that arise against us, when we put our trust and confidence in God and believe God's word to us.

1John 5:4 For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world:(to conquer) and this is the victory (The means of Success) that overcometh the world, even our faith.

1John 5:5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

It is our faith in God and Jesus Christ and what Jesus Christ accomplished for us and claiming the promises of God we overcome. Instead of confessing and looking at the Circumstances, we are to say what God says and act accordingly as God is working in us and leading us by His spirit.

2 Corinthians 4:18 While we look not at (Regard) the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. (everlasting)

The things in this world that are seen are subject to change and will not last but the promises of God are Yes in Christ and Amen in Christ.

2Corinthians 1:20 For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

1 Peter 1:23 Being born again, not of corruptible seed but of incorruptible, by the word of God which liveth and abideth forever.

This word of God liveth and abides forever, it is a faithful word which is more sure than the ground we stand upon.

By holding fast to the promises of God and saying what God says (The Promises) we can change the outcome, when we say what God says we release our faith and God power goes to work on our behalf, when we say the problem, it remains in front of us. we release our faith through our actions and words. Just as we can release fear through our action and words.

Hebrews 11:1 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

Faith is now, in the present tense. if it is future tense then it is not faith. Hope is in the future tense. Let's take a look at Mark 11. to understand better Hebrews 11:1

Mark 11:22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God.

Mark 11:23 For verily (surely) I say unto you, That whosoever shall say (speak) unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt (hesitate) in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith (speaks) shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith (speaks)

Mark 11:24 Therefore I say unto you, What things so ever ye desire, (Call for) when ye pray, believe (have confidence) that ye receive them (manifest them), and ye shall have them.

The first thing Jesus said is have faith in God, we are not to put our faith in ourselves but in God. Jesus goes on to say whosoever, that mean whosoever, believer or unbeliever, shall say unto this mountain, mountains refers to the problems, so here we see, we are to speak to the problem, not speak about the problem, we tell it what to do, Jesus gives an example of speaking to the problem, when he said "Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea," he commanded it, he gave it a directive, Just like when he spoke to the fig tree, and the storm and the waves and devil spirits, He used his authority, then he said and shall not doubt or hesitate in his heart but shall believe (right now) that those things which he speaks shall come to pass he shall have whatsoever he saith. In verse 24 Jesus goes on to say when ye pray, what things so ever you desire and this word desire can also mean call for, believe (when - right now) that ye receive (manifest) and ye shall have them. faith is now, we may not see the manifestation of what we ask or spoke in believing right away, but by believing we know it is already ours. It is a done deal.

Note Hebrew 11:6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

To receiving anything from God, we must know what is available, so what is available? The promise of God are available, which are yes in Christ and Amen. Then we must know how to receive that which is available, which is by faith, by our believing, claiming those promises and declaring what God says about our situation or problems we hold fast to God's word, we act upon it, we confess His word instead of the problems, we speak to the problem we use our authority in Christ. At the name of Jesus every knee should bow of things in heaven things in the earth and things under the earth, we have the authority and right to use the name of Jesus Christ. Philippians 2:10

In this world we live in, we all face challenges, and circumstances that are unfavourable at times, we are not immune to life problems because we are believers. Though we live in this world we are not to live like the world, which is to act and speak and respond like unbelievers do.

As believers we respond by coming into agreement with what God says, and live our life according to what God, shows us through His written word. We are to say what God says about us, not what the world says about us, not what the circumstances say or even our trusted best friend's or mother, brother, sister or wife or husband.

Our Faith and confession of our faith is what helps us to overcome the problems that is in front of Us. It is not our faith in our own ability or our own well thought through idea's or solutions, or worldly wisdom, But it is our Faith and trust in the promises of God word to us, we must believe like Abraham did, that what God has promised God is able to perform and bring His promises to pass for us, as we believe and as we hold fast to the truths of Gods promises to us.

Romans 4:16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all,

Romans 4:17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were.

Romans 4:18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be.

Romans 4:19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sara's womb:

Romans 4:20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong (strengthened) in faith, giving glory to God;

Romans 4:21 And being fully persuaded (fully convinced) that, what he (God) had promised, he was able also to perform.

Romans 4:22 And therefore it was imputed (counted) to him for righteousness. (right standing with God)

Romans 4:23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;

Romans 4:24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, (counted) if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead;

Romans 4:25 Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

Faith is trusting Gods word to us, regardless of the situation.... we claim Gods promises to us, we know that they are ours, it is a done deal, and the manifestation of the promise will certainly come, we say what God says, we come into agreement with the word of God, we speak to the problem, we use our authority in Christ.

2Peter 1:1 Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

2Peter 1:2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of

God, and of Jesus our Lord,

2Peter 1:3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue:

2Peter 1:4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

2Peter 1:5 And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge;

2Peter 1:6 And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;

2Peter 1:7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity.

2Peter 1:8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

2Peter 1:9 But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

2Peter 1:10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall:

God has given to us all things that pertain unto life and godliness through the knowledge of him. We have been given exceeding great and precious promises, that by these (the exceeding great and precious promises) we might be partakers of the divine nature.
